

West Africa's First Plasma Fractionation Plant Strategic Financing & Investment Teaser CrimsonWings Plasma Biologics Ltd. | Lagos, Nigeria

Building Healthcare Sovereignty through Industrialization, Technology, and Regional Trade

Investment Ask

- $300M+ Annual Import Market for plasma-derived medicinal products (PDMPs) in Nigeria — currently 100% imported.
- No plasma fractionation capacity exists in West Africa or the GCC.
- Strategic location in Lagos, within Lekki Free Trade Zone, with logistics and export access.
- Alignment with AfCFTA,

Investment Ask

Phase 1 – Pilot (₦10B / ~$6M, 0-6 months)

- Digital donor recruitment system
- Drone-enabled cold chain logistics
- 24/7 powered blood storage infrastructure
- Regulatory & hospital integration OS

Phase 2 – Full Scale (2027)

- 300,000L annual plasma fractionation capacity
- Production of Albumin, IVIG, Factors VIII/IX, Cryoprecipitate
- Regional export hub for ECOWAS & GCC

Location: Lagos, Nigeria

CrimsonWings Mandate

- Import Substitution
- Industrialization
- Export Development
- Healthcare Value Chains

Project Contribution

- Replace $300M in annual PDMP imports
- Build first plasma fractionation plant in W. Africa
- Create Pan-African/GCC supply platform
- Localize production post-COVID
- Anchor financing to crowd in private & sovereign capital

Investment Ask

Amount: ₦10 Billion (~$6 Million)

Instrument: Strategic financing / structured facility / co-investment

Use of Proceeds:

Tech backbone & donor recruitment platform
Drone logistics & storage infrastructure
Regulatory & compliance groundwork

Strategic Role for Prospective Investor:

Anchor financier or credit enhancer to de-risk private and sovereign investors, positioning the Bank at the center of a first-mover healthcare industrialization platform.

CrimsonWings Plasma Biologics Ltd.

6A Okeowo Shomorin Off Gbagada Express Way, Lagos, 0909 763 3834 / 0708 info@crimsonwingsbiologics.com, investorrelations@crimsonwingsbiologics.com
| crimsonwingsbiologics.com

